DETAILED ACTION

Drawings

1. The drawings are objected to as failing to comply with 37 CFR 1.84(p)(5) because they include the following reference character(s) not mentioned in the description: (72). Corrected drawing sheets in compliance with 37 CFR 1.121(d), or amendment to the specification to add the reference character(s) in the description in compliance with 37 CFR 1.121(b) are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. Any amended replacement drawing sheet should include all of the figures appearing on the immediate prior version of the sheet, even if only one figure is being amended. Each drawing sheet submitted after the filing date of an application must be labeled in the top margin as either "Replacement Sheet" or "New Sheet" pursuant to 37 CFR 1.121(d). If the changes are not accepted by the examiner, the applicant will be notified and informed of any required corrective action in the next Office action. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

Claim Objections

2. Claims 25 and 26 are objected to under 37 CFR 1.75(c) as being in improper form because a multiple dependent claim cannot depend from any other multiple dependent claim. See MPEP § 608.01(n). Accordingly, the claims 25 and 26 have not been further treated on the merits.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

3. Claims 1-29 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Claims 1, 8 and 16 claim a filter device, particularly for use with an agricultural sprayer. The filter device is considered a subcombination of the combination of a filter device with an agricultural sprayer. The breadth of these claims is indefinite because it is unclear if the applicant is claiming the subcombination or the combination. For examination purposes these claims are taken to be drawn to the subcombination of a filter device.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

4. Claims 1-19 and 21-24 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Kudlaty US 3,476,251.

Regarding claims 1, 4, 8, 9, 12 and 16, Kudlaty (251) teaches a filter comprising: a case (3) with a bottom and upper open end, an inlet (6) arranged at the bottom end and an outlet (7); a lid (50); a valve structure at the bottom end movable between a first position where the inlet is open and a second position where the inlet is blocked; a filter element (36) releasably arranged in the casing; the filter element is between the valve structure and the lid; the valve structure is rotatable about a longitudinal axis of the housing; the lid is rotatable about the same axis; and a coupling whereby the lid is coupled to the valve structure (through housing (10)) such that rotational movement of the lid about the longitudinal axis imparts rotation of the valve (figures 1,2 and 6, col. 3, line 58 – col. 4, line 42).

Regarding claims 2-3, 5-7, 10-11, 13-15, 17-19 and 21-24, Kudlaty (251) teaches seals (37) for sealing the filter (36) against the valve structure and the lid; the outlet is at the bottom end; the valve structure blocks the outlet in the second position (fig. 6); the lid is releasably coupled to the filter element which is coupled to the valve structure; the filter element is releasably coupled to the lid and the valve structure; the filter element has a lower and upper end with a rigid elongated structure supporting the medium and includes an internal axial flow passage; the filter element is tubular and the device includes an annular space between the filter and the casing (figures 1,2 and 6, col. 3, line 58 – col. 4, line 42).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

5. Claims 27-29 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Kudlaty (251) in view of Humbert, Jr. US 4,052,307. Kudlaty (251) teaches the filter device but does not teach the filter element including a valve. Humbert, Jr. (307) teaches a filter device having a filter element (50) including a valve (56) at a bottom end thereof, the valve adapted to close upon release of the filter element from the casing (A) (fig. 3 and 5). It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to use the valve of Humber, Jr. (307) because the valve means substantially reduces the amount of fluid lost or spilled during filter replacement (col. 1, lines 39-46).
